

AWARDS FOR LIONESSE CLUB MEMBERS

Now...members of Lioness Clubs can achieve international recognition for perfect attendance...for years of membership in good standing...for bringing new members into their Lioness Clubs.

*In nations all around the world, we extend the hand of friendship.
And in doing so, we reach into the hearts and minds of those in need of our concern.*

*We add a special and unique quality to Lionism. We give of our time, our talents, and ourselves.
Along with Lions, we serve, too.*

...The Lions International Board of Directors provides that the Lioness Secretary shall request awards for Lioness members when the criteria for the respective awards have been properly met.

TO MAINTAIN PERFECT ATTENDANCE

If a Lioness misses a meeting, she may still maintain her eligibility for Perfect Attendance Awards. She may make up the missed meeting by attending the meeting of another officially certified Lioness Club; she may visit Lions International Headquarters in Oak Brook, Illinois, U.S.A.; or she may fulfill any special conditions so designated by her Club's Board of Directors as a suitable substitute for a missed meeting. It is recommended that the Board limit such substitutions to three or less per year.

ANNIVERSARY AWARDS

ONE YEAR ANNIVERSARY AWARD

Lionesses who have completed one year as a member in good standing shall be eligible to receive this special award. Of free form design, this emblem combines a white enamel background with gold lettering, and the numeral shown on a field of blue enamel.

No. LC-16

The period of this year may begin with any given month and need not coincide with either the fiscal or the calendar year.

SUCCEEDING ANNIVERSARY AWARDS

For every multiple of five years, beginning with the fifth year that a Lioness maintains her membership in good standing, she is eligible for an anniversary award. The blue enamel background and gold lettering of this award set off the white numeral panel, bearing the appropriate number of years. (Designate on order form which numerals are to be shown: 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45 or 50.)

MEMBERSHIP EXTENSION AWARDS

MEMBERSHIP AWARD

To earn the Membership Award, a Lioness must sponsor two new Lioness members. These women must remain in the Lioness Club for at least one year and one day. When both of these new members do so, the Sponsoring Lioness becomes eligible for the award.

No charter or reinstated members can be used in applying for any membership award. Credit can be given only if the members are new Lionesses or former auxiliary members who are becoming new members of the Lioness Club.

The Sponsoring Lioness must fulfill the duties expected of her by her Lioness Club with regard to the initiation of the new Lioness member and helping her adjust to the Club, as well as those Sponsor duties outlined in the Lioness Club Officers' Handbook.

The beautiful Membership Award shows the Lioness emblem in gold on a white enamel background.

MEMBERSHIP ADVANCEMENT AWARD

To earn this attractive award in gold with blue enamel, a Lioness must sponsor six or more members, and these women must remain in the Lioness Club for at least one year and one day. The two members a Lioness sponsored in order to win her Membership Award may be counted toward this total of six. The other criteria for this award are the same as those described for the Membership Award.

No. LC-20

LIONS AUXILIARIES THAT BECAME LIONESSE CLUBS

Lionesses who were members of a Lions Auxillary that became a Lioness Club are eligible to receive awards retroactive to include all their years of membership, both in the auxillary and the Lioness Club. Similarly, a Lioness would be eligible to receive all due membership extension awards for members she had sponsored over the years, providing that her auxiliary had kept applicable records.

To be eligible for retroactive awards, the Lions Auxiliary that became a Lioness Club must have been an actively meeting club up to and during the transition to Lioness Club membership.
